Pontifical Charities | Peter's Pence Collection

July 2nd 2017

“Charity, or love, is a life choice, a way of being and of living; it is the path of humility and solidarity.

There is no other path for this love: so be humble and solid.”
- Pope Francis

Archdiocese of Dublin

Today, we take up the Peter's Pence Collection one of the oldest collections in Church history. Peter's Pence is an initiative by Catholics from all over the world which, by giving, allows Pope Francis to carry out his mandate, taking part in works of mercy. The message of Pope Francis from the beginning of his pontificate has consistently been about a Church which reaches outwards—he challenges the entire Church to become witnesses to Jesus the good shepherd.

The success of Pope Francis' agenda depends on us, the missionary disciples of Jesus Christ, and how far we are willing to make his agenda truly our own and bring it into the life the world around us, in family, at work, in society, in politics, in the fight to defend the poor, the exploited and the marginalized.

I hope you will give generously to this collection as a sign of the gratitude and recognition of the work of Pope Francis.

Archbishop Diarmuid Martin
